Application for Employment

Experience: List on the reverse side any experience or background that is applicable to the type of position you are applying for:

Working on a farm may seem idealistic and serene, but it's a difficult job and farm work continues everyday regardless of weather, weekends or holidays. Hemingway Farm workers will be required to: show up for work on time and prepared for the conditions (rain, heat, cold), be able to work alone as well as with others, work at a quick and steady pace while maintaining quality and detailed results. If you would like to join our energetic team, we want to hear from you!
